

AIDS Hotline 2780 2211

1. Cantonese

2. English

3. Putonghua

1. Risk assessment

2. HIV antibody blood test or nurse counsellor

3. AIDS information

3.1 Knowing about AIDS

3.1.1 Routes of transmission and prevention

3.1.1.1 Sexual contact

3.1.1.2 Blood contact

3.1.1.3 Mother to infant infection

3.1.2 What are the signs and symptoms of HIV infection?

3.1.3 Needlestick injury in health care setting

3.1.4 Can one be infected through social contact?

3.1.5 Information for travel abroad

3.2 HIV antibody testing

3.2.1 Should I have an HIV antibody test?

3.2.2 What does the test show?

3.2.3 What should you do if you want to have an HIV antibody test?

3.2.4 Universal Antenatal HIV Antibody Testing

3.3 Rapid test for HIV

3.3.1 What is rapid test and how is it performed?

3.3.2 What does the test show?

3.3.3 How well does the test work?

3.4 Management of HIV infection

3.4.1 Disease monitoring and medical treatment

3.4.2 Antiretroviral therapy

3.4.3 Complications

3.4.4 Support services

3.4.5 Tips on maintaining health

3.4.6 Rights of people with HIV/AIDS

4. Information on sexually transmitted infections

4.1 How do sexually transmitted infections link with AIDS?

4.2 Common Sexually Transmitted Infections

4.3 What should I do if I have whitish or abnormal discharge from the genitalia?

4.4 What should I do if I have a sore or a growth on my genital organ?

4.5 Where do I go for a sexually transmitted infection check up?

5. How to use a condom?

5.1 Choices of condoms

5.2 Using a condom properly

6. Announcement

Key to main menu = *

Key to previous menu = #